Drama Play

Drama play questions for discussion

There is a wonderful story in the treasure of the world literature, which inspired us to create, and which relied on the drama play. God brought the man to two doors - hell here, but here's paradise. In the Hell to the table sit hungry crowd, unhappy people who are trying to eat, the most delicious dishes standing in the middle of the table. The spoon with very long handle is given to each person to reach the food. People reach the food, but can't put it into their mouths, because of the long handle. They are angry, blame each other, because they can't eat.

In the Paradise everybody are happy, nor the situation is the same, and the table, and the spoons, but here they learnt how to feed others, but not try to put the food in their own mouths. The moral of this story works and in the sexual education.

The drama play is from two parts, but both parts are intertwined with the same heroes, the story consists of the integral piece. The main idea is, that we all have to learn how to love, but not how to make love. In the second part was ruined heroes emotional world, destroy everything valuable, leaving the person, just as a tool for someone for physical settle and the motivation of the rebellion...
